"Camp Washington makes the best."

—Road Food 10th Edition

Welcome to the one and only Camp Washington Chili Parlor! Since 1940, Camp Washington Chili has been proudly serving "chili-heads" from Cincinnati and all over the world from the corner of Hopple and Colerain Streets, in the heart of Cincinnati's Camp Washington neighborhood. While our secret chili recipe speaks for itself, there are yet other ingredients that help make Camp Washington Chili the premier chili parlor in Cincinnati.

It all starts with quality food and quality service. Our entire team strives daily to serve this award-winning tradition to each of you, whether it's grinding the government-inspected beef, preparing your food to order, or working the counter and ladles 24-hours around the clock -- like clockwork -- six days a week. And Johnny Johnson, the patriarch of the Camp Washington Chili family, has been a constant part of that routine since 1951 when he immigrated to the United States from Greece and began working at Camp Washington Chili. Johnny hasn't worked anywhere else since the day he arrived -- a testament to his lifetime commitment to "chili-making." The dedication of Johnny, his wife Antigone, and their family has earned Camp Washington Chili an important place in Cincinnati's famed chili history.

And you, our guests, have earned a very important place in our hearts. Whether this is your first visit ever or your first of many visits for the week, you are the reason we are passionate about what we do.

For all of these reasons, Camp Washington Chili has distinguished itself as a true Cincinnati classic. Even though the original parlor was razed in 2000 to make way for street widening, we have occupied this same corner for almost 80 years with timeless appeal and commitment to quality. But don't just take our word for it. Sit back and enjoy a truly unique Cincinnati tradition. And, with each bite, take in not only the rich chili taste but the even richer tradition behind it.

JOHNNY JOHNSON
Patriarch of The Camp

Thank you for your patronage.
We look forward to serving you.
